My 3 suggestions are:

- 1.The teachers should be serious always while teaching. Not go here and there or pickings some calls,that distract his/her as well as students.
- 2.The teacher should be always punctual. It is important because the students always copy the teacher. Students who are not punctual are also should not be admitted. If we admit always the late,,he /she always be late.
- 3.The third and the final point,but not the least is the teachers should be clear in his profession. He should not be involved in any other advantages or occupation.. Because,The teacher role is very important... He should be updated and a confidence person...If he was involved in other activities he wolud mot be fit enough.

THANK YOU

It is good enough for me
