

ABOUT THE PRINCIPAL

Dr. PL Ramliana served as Lecturer in Aizawl West College on 31.07.1992 in the Department of Economics. He was awarded the degree of Ph.D in Economics in 2009 by the Mizoram University. He had been designated as Reader in Economics before being converted as Associate Professor. While serving as Associate Professor in the College, he was transferred to the post of Secretary, Mizoram Scholarship Board in 2021. He served as Secretary of Scholarship Board up to 02.03.2026. He was then repatriated to the College to become the Principal from 3.3.2026 and till date. He had been assigned various additional responsibilities while serving as teacher in the College which include Programme Officer of NSS, Nodal Officer of Red Ribbon Club, Coordinator of Career Oriented Programme, Secretary of College Building Committee and Supervisor of college building project etc. He served in various capacities of the Office Bearer in the Association of Voluntary Blood Donation Mizoram for a long time in order to promote voluntary blood donation among the youths of Mizoram. To uphold and promote the common welfare of college teachers, he was also deeply involved in the Mizoram College Teachers Association Headquarters and served as Finance Secretary, Treasurer, General Secretary, and the President of MCTA for more than 15 years taken together. He had also been a member of the Academic Council of the Mizoram University and member of the School Board in Economics (SEMIS) under MZU and played an active role as Chief Examiner in Economics. He had contributed and published various articles in academic journals and also contributed articles of current and social issues which are published in local dailies. He is the author of 'Poverty in North East India, a Study of Mizoram' published by Mittal Publications.